

Summer 2010 Special Offering Education Course

The following graduate or undergraduate level course is fully Wisconsin DPI approved. Tuition is $380.00 per graduate credit. Graduate courses are open to students with a bachelor's degree and teaching experience. The complete summer session course schedule is available on the Mount Mary web site at: <http://www.mtmary.edu/summerschool.htm>

Addressing the Needs of English Language Learners

EDU 595.007 (3 graduate credits)

EDU 395.007 (3 undergraduate credits)

Day/Dates: 6/21/2010 – 6/24/2010
6/28/2010 – 7/1/2010
no class the week of 7/4/2010
7/12/2010 – 7/15/2010
On-line follow-up the week of 7/19/2010

Time: Monday – Thursday; 9 AM -1 PM

Location: Mount Mary College Campus

Instructor: Katherine Daily

This course will explore current issues in ESL/ELL education. It is designed for both current and future educators who wish to learn more about second language learners in the classroom. Participants will gain knowledge in linguistics and language learning, cross-cultural communications and experience, and teaching methods and material development for the second language classroom. Available for undergraduate credit as EDU 395.007

Registration materials available at:

<http://www.mtmary.edu/summerschool.htm>

Complete and return:

Summer 2010 Special Student Application (.pdf, 76K)

Summer Course Selection Form (.pdf, 42K)

Summer 2010 Check or Money Order Payment Form (.pdf, 22K)

For course information, contact Deb Dosemagen, Director of the Graduate Program in Education, at (414) 256-1214.