

Forgiveness: Urban Youth's Perceptions and Collective Narratives

Workshop for Catholic School Teachers, School Counselors, and Leaders

May 2, 2012 (4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.)

Marquette University Raynor Library Conference Center Beaumier Suites
1355 West Wisconsin Avenue Milwaukee, WI

4:00 p.m.	Welcome & Prayer	Jennifer S. Maney, Ph.D. Coordinator, GMCEC
4:05 – 5:00	Presentation: Forgiveness This portion of the workshop will include narratives at the local and the national/international level to illustrate: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. A definition of what forgiveness is...and what it is not...2. The costs of not forgiving...costs of forgiving...3. The steps of the forgiveness process4. The specific issues of forgiveness faced by urban teen-agers of color.	Dr. Sharon Chubbuck
5:00 – 5:30 p.m. 5:30 0 6:00	Breakout Conversation by Level Group Processing and Q&A This interactive, professional development event will provide teachers, leaders, and school counselors leaders an opportunity to learn about, discuss, and exchange ideas on the theme of forgiveness incorporated into the curriculum. The workshop will consist of a presentation of material, group breakouts by age level, large group feedback sessions, and questions and answers. Dr. Sharon Chubbuck is an associate professor in the College of Education, Marquette University. Her areas of expertise and scholarship include secondary literacy, multicultural education, and forgiveness education.

To register, visit <http://gmcec.com/eventregistration.html>

DEADLINE: April 23, 2012

FEE: FREE to Milwaukee Archdiocese teachers, leaders, and counselors (includes light dinner)

RSVP to: Jennifer Maney at Jennifer.maney@marquette.edu