GOT PDP?

Begin your work for DPI license renewal under PI-34 with the Professional Development Plan I course at Marquette University in SPRING 2010.

This spring, Marquette University will be offering EDPL 6931, "Professional Development Plan I," at a special rate for new teachers. The course will provide guidance for the writing of a professional development plan. In addition, the instructor of the courses will serve as participants' higher education representative for the PDP review process at no added cost.

COURSE MEETINGS:

Marquette's course is scheduled to meet on the following days at PIUS XI High School:

Friday, April 16, 2010 from 4-8pm

Saturday, April 17, 2010 from 9am-12pm

Friday, May 7, 2010 from 4-8pm

Saturday, May 8, 2010 from 9am-12pm

Please note: attendance for all sessions is required.

COST:

Marquette University College of Education is offering this one-credit PDP I course to Archdiocesan teachers for a special rate of $250 (Marquette's regular graduate tuition rate is $645/credit)

HOW TO APPLY:

Please contact Lori Fredrich at lori.fredrich@marquette.edu for an application form.

The application deadline for the spring course is March 30, 2010.

Regrettably, late applications cannot be accepted

Receipt of your completed application will communicate a commitment to the spring course sequence, and you will receive additional information about the course from the instructor before the course begins.
