

CATHOLIC TEACHER TUITION DISCOUNTS FOR GMCEC MEMBER INSTITUTIONS

- Alverno College: Offers teachers a 50% discount on the first three credits in any semester. This is good for update credits as well as for teachers who matriculate to programs
- Cardinal Stritch University: 50% discount on tuition for Catholic schools teachers. Teacher must be officially enrolled in a program and the discount does not apply to the Ph.D. program
- Marquette University: Catholic school scholarship for which teachers can apply. Picks up to 2/3 the cost of tuition for up to 6 credits.
- Marian University: Offers a 25% discount to all faith-based teachers and administrators for their Master Degree Programs in the School of Education. All teachers or administrators, who qualify, will have to have a letter sent to the School of Education Dean's office from their immediate supervisor verifying that they hold a full-time position in their faith-based schools. (This discount does not apply to professional development courses or to the Doctorate Program). Marian University offers a 50% discount on all programs to St. Mary Springs Academy employees and 50% tuition discount for their dependents if attending Marian University.
- Mount Mary College: Offers 50% discount for teachers working in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. This can pertain to Post Bach students or Licensed Teachers who want to obtain a Masters in Education or School Counseling. They need to be considered part time students, which means 5 credits or fewer for Grads and 11 or fewer credits for Undergraduate. Employees need to be full time and have to have a letter signed by their school principal indicating they are an employee.
